LNDCH4, the U.S. joint venture building an integrated natural gas processing facility at Wales, announced on Friday the arrival of a 30-megawatt backup battery energy storage system (BESS), a critical safeguard designed to ensure uninterrupted power delivery from the country's landmark.

See full statement from LNDCH4 Guyana LNDCH4 Guyana is pleased to announce the arrival of the Backup Battery Storage System (BESS) which landed at the John Fernandes wharf today. The BESS forms a critical part of the power plant's emergency support system and is engineered to ensure uninterrupted.

With global lithium-ion battery markets projected to hit $130 billion by 2030 [1], this South American gem is strategically positioning itself at the crossroads of energy innovation. Guyana's energy profile reads like a wishlist for battery storage: Solar potential that could fry an egg (5.5).

Guyana Power and Light Inc. (GPL) has issued a call for bids for the engineering, procurement, and construction (EPC) of a 15-megawatt peak (MWp) solar PV system with 22 megawatt-hours (MWh) of battery storage for the isolated Linden system. Financing for this initiative comes from the $220.8.
